POINTS OF ORDER

A bill must be in Committee in order to have a public hearing thereon, by Holland, 1323.

A motion once defeated by a roll call cannot again be made in the same legislative day, by Haluska, 775, 1653.

POINTS OF ORDER—Continued.

- A motion that bills be prepared for first reading is superfluous, as that is ordinary procedure, by Hepburn, 3415.
- A motion to adjourn at a particular time is debatable, by Andrews, 4470.
- A motion to adjourn is always in order, by Woodring, 770.
- A motion to adjourn is not debatable, by Scanlon, 2329. by Turner, 4470.
- A motion to recess is out of order when a previous motion passed by the Senate has not been complied with, by Barr, 3411. by Dent, 3411, 3412.
- A motion to reconsider a vote on a bill is out of order when the bill is out of possession of the Senate, by Heyburn, 1648.
- Argument by Senators with the Chair is out of order, by Walker, 3412.
- House Bills Nos. 872, 1190, 871, and 936 cannot be put on the Calendar for first reading at our next Session, because they were not reported according to the rules of the Senate, by Barr, 3416.
- House Bill No. 1190, empowering cities of second class to levy, assess, and collect certain additional taxes—referred to the Committee on Finance, has nothing to do with finance, by Barr, 2525.
- It has always been understood as one of the cardinal rules of this House that one gentleman does not see another gentleman when he is "out," by Turner, 4411.
- It is impossible to follow the proceedings before the House with so much disorder among visitors and Members, by Moran, 2175.
- Members should confine discussions to the bill before the House, by Moran, 2001.
- Nothing can stop a roll call, by Farrell, 1323.
- Quorum, request for calling of the roll and recording all members present, to determine whether there is a, by Haluska, 3083.
- Reports of Committees of Conference do not come under Rule 21, as do bills on concurrence in House amendments, by Heyburn, 3673.
- Roll call has been started, therefore is the only thing in order, by Walker, 3085.
- Rules of the Senate cannot be amended except by resolution, by Heyburn, 867.
- The amendment to a bill having been voted down, the Senate cannot vote on the amendment to the title, by Holland, 768.
- The Chair having said that the House is on the third-reading Calendar, a motion to take up a bill on the second-reading Calendar is out of order, by Turner, 4392.
- The expression used in connection with the discussion on Senate Bill No. 122, giving married women certain authorizations concerning their real property, was "semi-private," by Walker, 2448.
- The gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Geltz, is not discussing Bill No. 936 (House) amending Act, 1911, fixing a limit for taxes to be levied on real estate in cities of second class, 3999. by Dent, 3999.
- The gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. McNair, is not speaking on the bill before the House, by Fleming, 3049.
- The gentleman from Cambria is out of order in moving to reconsider second-reading vote on a bill, for the

- reason that the Senate is not in possession of the bill, by Heyburn, 1647.
- The gentleman from Crawford County, Mr. Mahany, having interposed his objection to amendments, has said all that is in order, and the amendments are not before the House for debate, by Andrews, 709.
- The gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner is not discussing the matter under consideration, by Andrews, 4180.
- The gentleman from Lehigh is not in contempt until some action is taken to bring him in contempt, by Andrews, 1702.
- The gentleman from McKean, Mr. McDowell, is not speaking on the motion according to the ruling of the Chair, by Turner, 4180.
- The gentleman from McKean, Mr. McDowell is not speaking on the motion, he is talking about the bill, by Turner, 4180.
- The gentleman from Philadelphia has been trying to get the attention of the Chair for the purpose of presenting amendments, by Rosenfeld, 771.
- The gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Levy, is apparently wearing his spurs, by Turner, 3429.
- The gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Levy, is not speaking on the motion before the House, by Hare, 4182.
- The gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Levy, is not speaking on the resolution before the House, by Sorg, 4099.
- The gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Rose, is not speaking on the question before the House, by Salus, 4406. By Waterhouse, 4406.
- The gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Rose, is out of order in debating a bill, when there is a motion to recommit the bill before the House, by Tahl, 553.
- The gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Rosenfeld, did not vote with the Majority, therefore his motion to reconsider the second-reading vote on a bill is not in order, by Farrell, 771.
- The gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Skale, is not talking on the bill before the House, by Turner, 2276.
- The gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Lovett, is not speaking on the question before the House, by Hare, 2011.
- The gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Lovett, is not talking on the amendments before the House, by Elder, 3824.
- The gentleman from Westmoreland withdrew his motion, but the gentleman from Allegheny did not withdraw his seconding thereof, by Walker, 3415.
- The House is out of order in debating questions prior to the recording of the vote on a motion to adjourn, by Scanlon, 2331.
- The interrogation in progress is not on Senate Bill No. 183, Bituminous Coal Open Pit Mining Conservation Act, the bill before the House, by Mahany, 4395, 4396.
- The motion of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Senator McCreesh, to drop a bill from the calendar is not in order, as there is now before the Senate a motion to amend the bill under discussion, by Kephart, 1145.
- The motion to amend the Senate Rules presented before the motion to refer the same to committee takes precedence over the latter, by Cox, 867.
- The remarks of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Rosenfeld, are out of order, as they do not apply to the bill under consideration, by Edmonds, 754.

POINTS OF ORDER—Continued.

The reports submitted on Eastern State Penitentiary, and the mental hospitals at Woodville and Mayview are not Committee reports, and should have been referred to the Committee on Welfare, Public Assistance and Pensions, by Jaspan, 2844.

The resolution before the Senate is not debatable, by Dent, 303.

The roll calls have been given as 41 votes on all bills passing April 19th, and there have not been 41 Senators in their seats, by Haluska, 2629.

There are amendments before the Senate, which should be considered before other amendments are introduced, by Geltz, 764.

There is no House Rule prescribing penalties to be imposed on a Member for not voting, by Andrews, 1702.

There is nothing before the Senate, except the reading of Senate bills reported from Committee for the first time, by Dent, 3412.

There is nothing in order but announcing the result of the motion to suspend, by Scanlon, 2336.

There was a motion before the Senate prior to the motion to adjourn, by Barr, 3410.

There was no roll call on the second-reading vote on House Bill No. 62, concerning liquid fuels tax, and everyone is recorded as voting in the affirmative; therefore I voted in the affirmative thereon, by Barr, 3541.

Under the Rules, there must be a recorded vote on a motion made before the Senate, and if there is no record, then a vote was not taken, by Dent, 1648.

Unanimous consent was not requested to report bills from Committee by Barr, 3412.

When the motion was made that Senate bills reported from Committee be read first time, no time was stipulated when the bills would be read, by Wade, 3412, 3413.
